Springerville Items

Dies Royal that handsome young man who comes from Indian was in Springerville this week.

Micky Wahl was in town with an ingrown hat on.

Since th' primaries have been held, th' candidates that got left are congratulating themselves because they didn't give any dances. Ed Burk was th' only one that got stung. He gave a free for all and everyone shook their feet for six hours at his expense. Some fellers can dance a whole lot better and a whole lot longer when th' other feller pays for it. Everyone was surprised because Claud Murray wasn't in for th' dance. About th' only time Claud misses a dance is when there are two dances in town on th' same night.

John Allen was up from St. Johns and shook hands all around with th' natives.

Bill was up to th' wedding and distinguished himself when th' ice cream and cake were served. He took the largest dish on th' tray and drank down ice cream like a thirsty steer at a water hole. Bill got many valuable pointers and looked over th' marriage license but allows he will wait a few years longer. Mr. Rencher cherishes the opinion that a wedding was like a funeral only a man kin generally figure out what he is going to run into when he dies, but marriage is a leap in the dark. I suppose you kin get along all right if you kin eat your wife's first biscuits.

Charles H. Sharp, sometimes called Hank Sharp, was in town en-route for Prescott to serve on th' grand jury.

Eos Pipkins, another Nutri-Asian, was in Springerville last week.

Clifford W. McKibben, th' Popular Deputy Forest Supervisor of th' Forest Service, is going to leave pretty quick for somewhere outside of Springerville. Mac has been here for over three years and is about as familiar a figure as Penrose Dixon, Alfalfa Bill and Willie Wahl, and will be missed very much when he leaves.

Wedding in Eagar

Popular Eagar Couple Marry

At 3 P. M. September 14. Mr. David Butler and Miss Jennie Maxwell were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Maxwell. The marriage ceremony was performed by Bishop Udall. The house was very beautifully and tastily decorated with sweet peas and other garden flowers and the bride and groom stood on a slightly raised platform with a background of white bordered with flowers, while the simple marriage ceremony was spoken. The bride looked very pretty attired in a white dress of artistic design and pattern. The bridegroom was attired in the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony the many friends of the happy couple came forward and congratulated them heartily. Many valuable and useful gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Butler. After the ceremony light refreshments were served. The bride and groom are well known in St. Johns as well as Eagar, both having attended the Academy for sometime. The bride also attended high school in Mesa and business college in Phoenix and was employed as clerk in the Forestry office at Springerville shortly before her marriage. The couple expect to leave for Provo, Utah within a few weeks, at which place they plan to attend the Brigham Young University.

It was originally planned to hold the marriage ceremony a days later, but owing to the necessity of the bride's father being in Prescott to serve on the grand jury, the time was set up a few days.

The Herald-News joins in with their many friends in wishing them a happy and useful married life.

SCHOOL NOTES

The following pupils made a perfect record during the second week of school: Madeleine Waite, Ruby Johnson, Lee Roy Gibbons, Aditha Overson, Edith Waite, Neva Sherwood.

The attendance in the principal's department has increased to thirty-one pupils a gain of over fifty per cent during the week. The other departments also show a marked increase.

The school piano has arrived and is an addition to the school of which we are justly proud. On Friday night pupils of the district enjoyed themselves in a dance until the hour of ten o'clock.

When the day of election draws near and two parties begin their canvass for votes the school children stand ready to assist them with some stirring, original election songs that are guaranteed to be true to character. Don't forget us when you have your rally.

Please remember also that we shall be ready in two weeks more with our first school entertainment.

Local News.

According to the Springville correspondent of our esteemed contemporary, the Hon. Perkins of the P. S. Outfit is building a new chuck box. That reminds us. We are going to have a new pig pen built as soon as we can raise the price.

Hon. Lyman S. Hamblin one of the good old timers of the upper county, was in the city this week on Court business, leaving for his home yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hamblin is as spry, robust, jolly and handsome as ever. (He told us not to say anything about his being handsome, but as we intend to give all the new all the time we can not refrain from stating this fact, along with others).

Mr. R. D. Greer and wife came up the last of the week for a short visit with their son Prof. Thos R. Greer. The Honorable 'Dick' went on to Springerville Tuesday. He is driving a brand new De-troit, which is a new come in local buss-wagondom.

REGRET—AND SYMPATHY

Perhaps other "Herald" readers as well have noticed something lacking in the usual spice of the "colyum" as edited by our own Alfalfa Bill, Jr. "Pride of Springerville" And it's no wonder for our scribe has recently taken to a very pathetic heart song, "The Curse of an Aching Heart". Bill claims that he can't carry a tune in a basket but to hear him sing so pathetic a ballad would bring tears to the eyes of even the most wicked.

Why trifle with laurels when one must give way to his innermost feelings (to get them out of his system as it were)

Our hearts go out to you Bill, but try not to take it so seriously. The sun still shines—but it's a shame the "colyum" has to suffer.
